Why do you want to be the Team Leader at Rosie's Girls?

Please tell us about all of your experiences that you have had working with 5th-9th grade youth:

Please tell us about any experience you have doing carpentry, auto repair, welding, or any other trades work: (please note: this experience is helpful, but definitely not necessary for this job!)

What kinds of arts-related skills could you teach to campers?

What ways would you provide leadership in setting the tone and direction for the camp ... both for staff and participants?

Please describe your experience in leading teambuilding and group initiatives.

Have you had experience teaching leadership to youth/staff or leading orientations? If so, please explain.

In what capacity have you worked with parents? How do you feel about working with parents?

What particular strengths would you bring to this job?

Please describe the experience you would want staff and participants to have when they attend Rosie's Girls. As a leader, how do you see your role in achieving this experience?
